

Join the SVHS for a talk with local Cowboss Jeremy Cluff!

When: Thursday, March 20th at 6pm

Where: Skull Valley Community Center

Talk: Ranching and history of cattle in Skull Valley, and how it's changed over time

Jeremy Cluff is the Cowboss for the 7 Spear Ranch in Skull Valley. He has been ranching in Arizona for about 30 years. He has also trained horses and competed in several disciplines in the horse showing world. He has been on the 7 Spear Ranch here in Skull Valley since 2020. Jeremy will be talking about ranching and some of the history of cattle in the area, as well as the culture and language used in ranching. He will also discuss ranching in today's world, and how he works with the land and current technology while still preserving the tradition of the old days.

*The event is free, but donations are greatly appreciated! There will be live music and refreshments starting at 5:15. RSVP to Lindsay (630-710-8584) to save your seat.